

Fire and Emergency honours' award

Fire and Emergency New Zealand Chief Executive, Rhys Jones has congratulated five firefighters and support personnel from Cromwell, Kaikoura, Ranfurly, Blackball (West Coast) and Taneatua (Bay of Plenty) who were named in this year's Queen's Birthday Honours list.

“We are very proud to have such dedicated people offer their services to both Fire and Emergency New Zealand and their communities,” said Mr Jones. “The huge amount of work they have undertaken over many years, for our organisation and many others, is helping to make their communities stronger, safer and more resilient.”

The recipients were; Des Minehan(Cromwell) - Member of the New Zealand Order of Merit (MNZM) for services to Fire and Emergency New Zealand

IFS Growth are proud of Des's achievement and life long contribution to Fire and Emergency New Zealand and their communities
